COLORADO CREDIT UNION CELEBRATES FINANCIAL LITERACY MONTH IN APRIL

April is Financial Literacy Month and we are celebrating with a free educational activity for children recommended ages 3-7. Bring your child to any Colorado Credit Union branch during the month of April to pick up a "Piggy Bank Basics" workbook. This free guide is filled with fun and engaging activities that introduces children to basic money and savings concepts. Have your child bring their completed workbook anytime in the month of April to a CCU branch and they will receive a special thank you gift. (Supplies are limited.)

This fun activity is part of Colorado Credit Union's commitment to financial education in the communities we serve. This opportunity is open to the public, membership is not required. For additional information, please visit www.ccu.org/events. Deadline to return workbooks is April 30, 2021.
